

CAPE TOWN BURNS SUPPER CLUB
21st ANNIVERSARY BURNS DINNER

FOR CENTURIES
AND
AROUND THE WORLD,
THE BIRTH OF SCOTLAND'S BARD,
ROBBIE BURNS, HAS BEEN CELEBRATED IN THE GRANDEST STYLE.

◆ ◆ ◆ ◆ ◆

This is your PERSONAL invitation to join an elegant crowd of like-minded people at our very special 21st ANNIVERSARY BURNS DINNER at Kelvin Grove Club, Newlands, on 7th February 2015

EMS &
NGSBY
RABBIE
BURNS

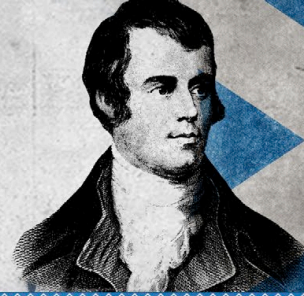

It's a Celebration of Scotland,

the life and works of our bard, Robbie Burns, and your chance to enjoy a fine mixture of top notch international speakers, a great dinner, our world class Regimental Drums and Pipes of the Cape Town Highlanders, traditional haggis, superb whisky and wines and a whole lot more; along with an opportunity to pick up some excellent stuff at our charity auction.

Master of Ceremonies will be none other than the charming, super witty and talented Guy McDonald, breakfast show host on Good Hope Fm and ever-popular whisky ambassador, Alan Schuman, will 'Address the Haggis'.

Amongst the eminent speakers, you will be entertained by the British High Commissioner, H.E. Judith MacGregor CMG LVO; Commander of the British Peace Support Team (SA) Colonel Simon West OBE; Lord Jamie Sempill; flying in especially from Scotland and well known actress, radio personality and motivational speaker Susana Kennedy.

Now well established on the Cape Town Social Calendar, this is one dinner you must be sure not to miss.

21st ANNIVERSARY BURNS DINNER

- DATE 7th February 2015
- PLACE Kelvin Grove Club, Campground Road, Newlands
- TIME Welcome drinks served at 6pm in the gardens
- DRESS Black tie / traditional Scottish attire / Mess Dress
A touch of tartan for the ladies
- TICKET R385 per seat
- Early bird automatic entry to a super prize draw if you book before December 31st.
- CONTACT CLAIRE ALEXANDER at claire@firecracker.pro

All proceeds of this charitable event will go to Quolora Education Outreach Programme, a Cape Town based initiative that provides improved education and technology access in specifically underdeveloped rural areas.

